

REGULATIONS OF THE EVENT held under the name:
"Oleśnica Festival of Circus and Art"

In order to ensure the safety of the participants of the event, we hereby introduce these Regulations (hereinafter referred to as: the Regulations), worded as follows:

1. The Regulations, issued by the Organizer, i.e. by the "OFCA Foundation" based at ul. Sejmowa 1/5, 56-400 Oleśnica, KRS 559954, NIP 9112010907 (hereinafter referred to as: the Organizer), apply to the event under the name: Oleśnica's Festival of Circus and Art which will be held from 13 to 15 August 2021 in Oleśnica (hereinafter referred to as: the Festival).

The purpose of the Regulations is to ensure the safety of participants of the Festival by defining the rules of behaviour of the persons present.

2. The Regulations are addressed to all the persons who will be staying in places where the Festival is being held. Therefore, any person staying in this area during the event is obliged to comply with the provisions of these Regulations.

3. The events taking place during the Festival are free except stage shows, entry tickets for the OFCA Campsite and entry tickets for OFCA Slackline.

Tickets price list:

stage show: 10 PLN

OFCA Campsite: 60 PLN

OFCA Slackline: 70 PLN

OFCA Campsite with OFCA Slackline: PLN 100

4. Tickets for the stage performances will be sold through Eventim and in OFCA Infopoint during the Festival.

OFCA Campsite and OFCA Slackline entry tickets will be sold only in OFCA Registration point during its opening hours. When purchasing tickets, a purchaser should have and show an ID document.

5. Tickets for stage shows bought during the Festival in Infopoint and the e-tickets by Eventim - both printed and presented electronically to the staff member at the entrance are equivalent and allow to enter the stage show. Each e-ticket has a unique QR code that once scanned cannot be used again. Only the person who will be the first to show an e-ticket to be scanned will be allowed to enter.

6. The Organizer has the right to specify the minimum age of admission for each of the stage shows. Despite holding a valid ticket persons who don't meet the age requirement will not be allowed to enter. The Organizer is not obliged to refund money for the unused ticket/e-ticket. Information about the age of admission will be announced in the description box of every show on the Festival website (www.festiwalofca.pl), the Eventim portal, Event's fanpage (www.facebook.com/festiwalofca) and printed materials distributed during the festival.

7. Refunds of tickets/e-tickets are accepted only if the event is canceled. The Organizer will each time announce the possibilities and dates of refunding tickets/e-tickets on the website (www.festiwalofca.pl) and on the fanpage of the Event on Facebook (www.facebook.com/festiwalofca).

The Organizer is not obliged to refund money for unused tickets / e-tickets.

8. After purchasing an entry ticket for both the Campsite and Slacklines, participants of the Festival will be provided with a wristband in the appropriate colour, which entitles them to enter the Campsite or a Slackline (different colour for participants of the Campsite and those using slacklines). The wristband must be put on the participant's hand by the Organizer's staff member. Every entry to the Campsite or Slackline tapes requires showing unbroken wristband fixed securely on the wrist.

9. Participants of the Festival and all other persons remaining at the venue are obliged to behave in a way that does not endanger the safety of other persons present at the Festival. It is forbidden to destroy equipment located on the Festival premises. Participants of the Festival and all other persons who are at its venue are obliged to follow the instructions of the Organizer and Security Service.

10. Festival's Security Service or the Organizer may remove from the Festival venue those who disturb public order or behave contrary to the Regulations. Persons who have been denied access to the event or who have been removed from it are not entitled to any claims against the Organizer, in particular claims related to the refund of the ticket/e-ticket.

11. The Organizer may refuse to admit to the Festival:

- a) people under the visible influence of alcohol, intoxicants, psychotropic drugs or other similar agents,
- b) a person with weapons or other dangerous objects, explosives, pyrotechnic materials, fire hazardous materials, alcoholic beverages, intoxicants or psychotropic substances or other objects that in Organizer's opinion may cause danger,
- c) a person behaving aggressively, provocatively or otherwise posing a threat to security.

12. The Organizer ensures safety and order to persons present at the Festival through, among others:

- a) ensuring Security Service during the Festival in designated places, especially at the Campsite, from 10:00 pm to 10:00 am,
- b) providing medical help points,
- c) informing the Police and Fire Brigade about the Festival being organized and cooperation in ensuring safety.

13. It is forbidden to conduct any commercial or other economic activity without the consent of the Organizer, as well as advertising and promotional activities at the venue of the Festival.

14. The Festival participant is obliged to equip himself with personal protective equipment, i.e. a mask covering the mouth and nose, as well as disinfectants.

15. The Participant of the Festival is obliged to comply with the current (during the Festival) sanitary guidelines established by state authorities, in particular relating to maintaining an appropriate social distance and covering the mouth and nose.

16. The number of seats available in the audience during stage performances will depend on the currently applicable sanitary guidelines, in particular the guidelines for organizers of cultural and entertainment events during the SARS-CoV-2 virus epidemic in Poland, as defined by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage, the Ministry of Development and the Chief Sanitary Inspector.

17. Before entering the Festival venue of a stage performance, hand disinfection is required.

18. The participant entering the Festival venue of a stage performance is obliged to submit a written statement to the ticket inspectors that the participant, to the best of his knowledge, is not an infected person and is not in quarantine or under epidemiological supervision. After obtaining them, the statements will be kept by the Organizer for 2 weeks.

19. If any audience or staff member is confirmed to be infected with the SARS-CoV-2 virus, the Organizer provides the relevant employees of the County Sanitary and Epidemiological Station with a list of people who participated in a given performance and a list of people involved in its operation.

20. The Organizer is not liable for any damage or damage to health caused by the Participant or that may result from their participation in the Festival both toward the participant and third parties. This liability rests entirely with the Participant.

21. The Organizer of the event is not responsible for items left at the Festival by its Participants and other people remaining at the venue.

22. The Organizer is not liable for the effects of force majeure.

23. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel or shorten the Festival as well as implement changes to the program without prior notice, especially in case of weather breakdown or equipment failure.

24. In case of disputes, the ultimate decision is made by the Organizer, whose vote is final.

25. Participation in the Festival also means giving permission for recording, photographing or making other types of records and using the image of the participant for the purposes of publication on the websites, written publications and Organizer's promotional materials.

26. Participants of the Campsite and OFCA Slackline are also subject to other relevant Regulations, such as Campsite Regulations and OFCA Slackline Regulations.

27. These Regulations are available:

- at the Festival website, i.e. www.festiwalofca.pl
- at the Festival Registration point.
